ABOUT US

N.I.S.T. Publishing House

Founded in 1993 as the Institute's distinctive department for publications, the I.N.S.T./N.I.S.T. Publishing House publishes and promotes results of scientific research programs, documentary activities, and academic cooperation with other researchers, conferences and scientific events.

First printed books were published in 1994 and since then the editorial plan increased with new themes and quantitatively, attracting new authors at the national level.

Our publishing strategy has as a primary objective to promote research areas based on NIST founding act and the Scientific Board decisions: everyday life under the communist regime, 1945-1989, economic structures, social problems, institutions, legal framework, culture, mentalities, language, repressive techniques, resistance typology, totalitarian aspects during King Carol II (1930-1940), legionary regime (1940-1941) and Marshall Ion Antonescu (1941-1944), political parties, political movements or anti-parliamentary ideological currents between wars.

Our Publishing House publishes authors, collective books, periodicals and other materials focused on the study of the totalitarian regime in Romania. Between 1994-2020, more than 170 volumes were printed (including N.I.S.T. Review, Totalitarianism Archives).
